

More Carnarvon Photos

All photos this page by Peter Jecks

Part of the extensive mangrove country about 10 Nm south of Carnarvon. Note the two trikes on the ground

Carnarvon's famous one mile timber jetty. Sadly, it was set on fire by vandals causing $100,000 damage

Carnarvon's fishing harbour. The facine and the town are behind with the airport in the top right corner

Lighthouse and fishing shacks at the Blowholes

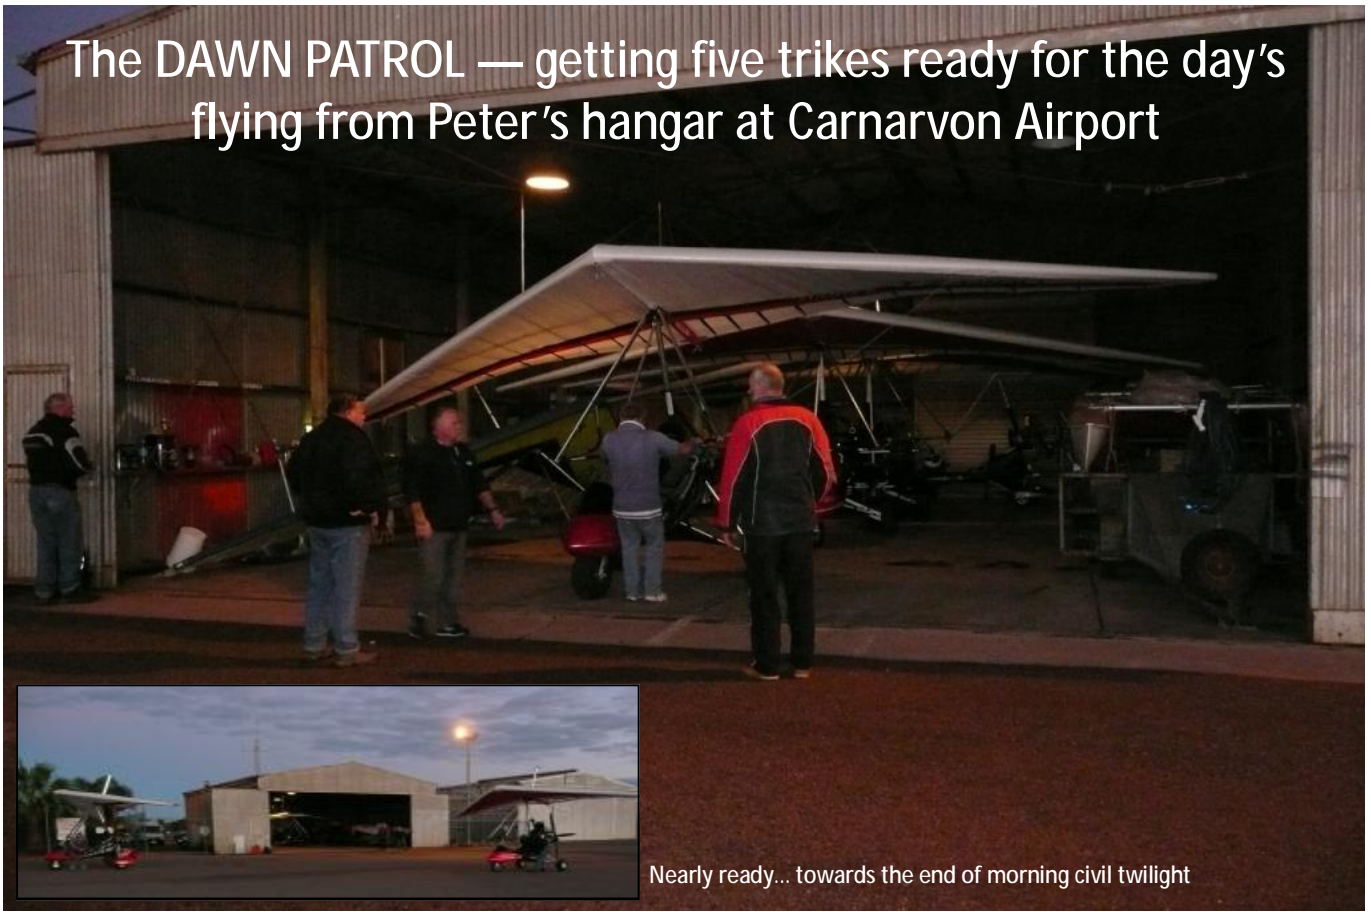

Local on quad bike visits Geoff at Miaboolya

More photos taken by Peter Jecks at Miaboolya: (Left) Rob D in his XT912 Outback and (Right) Paul and Joanne in the XT912 Classic

The DAWN PATROL — getting five trikes ready for the day's flying from Peter's hangar at Carnarvon Airport

Nearly ready... towards the end of morning civil twilight

Brendan conducts a theory class at Carnarvon for new students Bob, Sandy and Ian. Experienced observers, Jim and Geoff are looking on